Shaping Zanzibar's Prime Future

MB Homes is proud to play a role in shaping the island's real estate landscape, creating sustainable communities that enrich the lives of residents and investors alike.

Our office location

*Old Custom House,
2nd floor, Mizingani Road,
Stone Town, Zanzibar*

MB Homes is a residential real estate developer based in Zanzibar, operating at the intersection of investment and lifestyle living. We create projects that are equally attractive for passive income generation and for comfortable living by the ocean.

With our headquarters located in the heart of Stone Town, Zanzibar's capital, we focus on high-demand locations, transparent processes, and long-term value for both investors and residents.

Marketing Insights. Why now?

1. Zanzibar Is Transitioning From “Emerging” to “Established”

Zanzibar is entering a key growth phase where early investors can secure value before full market maturity. Rapid infrastructure development and limited land availability in prime areas support long-term appreciation.

2. Tourism Growth Is Structurally Strong (Not Seasonal Hype)

Tourism demand is diversified and supported by new international flight routes and government focus on high-value tourism. Growth in long-stay visitors ensures stable, year-round demand.

3. Stronger Government Support, Greater Investor Confidence

Clearer regulations, structured land ownership, and long-term leases have strengthened investor confidence. The ZIPA One-Stop Centre streamlines permits, registrations, and residency approvals, creating a transparent investment environment.

4. Rental Yields Outperform Many Mature Markets

Zanzibar offers higher rental yield potential than many mature markets, driven by strong demand for holiday rentals and serviced apartments with USD-based returns.

The Z-Summit demonstrates the power of public-private sector collaboration. Over three years, we have witnessed its growth from a modest gathering into a major international platform, now hosted in a larger venue to accommodate increasing exhibitors, buyers, and partners. This growth reflects rising confidence in Zanzibar's tourism brand and growing global interest in our destination.

We sincerely appreciate the organizers for this visionary initiative and all exhibitors and participants who have believed in and invested in Zanzibar's tourism potential. Your commitment has strengthened our tourism ecosystem and expanded market access for local and regional businesses.

Zanzibar's tourism sector has achieved historic milestones, including record visitor arrivals last year, positioning us among the region's fastest-growing tourism hubs. Recent prestigious international awards reaffirm Zanzibar's growing global competitiveness. Through continued collaboration via platforms like the Z-Summit, we remain confident in surpassing the one-million tourist arrivals target.

The Ministry remains fully committed to supporting the private sector and working with all stakeholders to grow, diversify, and sustainably develop Zanzibar's tourism. Continue being proud, responsible ambassadors, showcasing our rich culture, heritage, natural beauty, and diverse tourism offerings.

We wish you a productive, successful, and memorable Z-Summit 2026.

Foreword

SULEIMAN MOHAMMED

Chairman of ZATI

Dear Readers, Friends, and Participants of the Z-Summit,

On behalf of the Zanzibar Association of Tourism Investors (ZATI) and KILIFAIR Promotions, I welcome you to the 4th Z-Summit at the State University of Zanzibar (SUZA) in Tunguu. This strategic platform unites tourism investors, policymakers, industry leaders, academia, and development partners to shape Zanzibar's tourism and investment future.

The Z-Summit demonstrates ZATI's commitment to strengthening Zanzibar's tourism sector through collaboration, knowledge exchange, and responsible investment. As the private-sector umbrella body, ZATI advocates for an enabling business environment while supporting initiatives that enhance destination competitiveness, sustainability, and economic value.

Zanzibar's tourism is transforming—expanding beyond traditional leisure to embrace eco-tourism, heritage tourism, MICE, skills development, innovation, and sustainable investment models. The Z-Summit addresses these developments, fosters public-private dialogue, and aligns investment with national priorities.

Hosting at SUZA reinforces the vital link between industry growth and education, research, and capacity building. Collaboration between private sector and academia is essential for nurturing skills and future leadership.

We thank the Revolutionary Government of Zanzibar under His Excellency Dr. Hussein Ali Mwinyi and the Ministry of Tourism and Heritage for their support.

Special recognition goes to EXIM Bank Tanzania, ZATI's main sponsor, for its sustained commitment.

I encourage active engagement, insight sharing, and partnership exploration to build a resilient, inclusive, and sustainable tourism industry.

Karibuni sana to the Z-Summit. I wish you a successful summit.

Chairman of ZATI - Zanzibar Association of Tourism Investors

MULTICOLOR ADVERT

Foreword

MR. ARIF ABBAS MANJI

Executive Secretary, Zanzibar Commission for Tourism (ZCT)

Dear Readers and Participants of the Z-Summit 2026,

On behalf of the Zanzibar Commission for Tourism, I welcome you to Zanzibar and Z-Summit 2026. This platform connects investors, policymakers, and strategic partners seeking credible opportunities in one of Africa's most resilient and fast-evolving tourism markets.

Zanzibar's investment proposition extends beyond natural beauty. While UNESCO-listed Stone Town, Unguja's beaches, and Pemba's marine ecosystems remain central assets, the real value lies in a diversified, policy-driven tourism economy. International recognition—including designation as the World's Best Romantic Destination—reflects a market delivering quality, demand, and global visibility.

Under His Excellency Dr. Hussein Ali Mwinyi's leadership, tourism has become a strategic Blue Economy engine. Investment opportunities now span eco-tourism, heritage assets, halal tourism, gastronomy, wellness, MICE, sports tourism, and cruise operations—all supported by enabling policies and private-sector participation.

Market performance confirms this trajectory. In 2025, Zanzibar recorded its highest international visitor numbers, exceeding projections with double-digit growth. Tourism ranks among the strongest GDP and foreign exchange contributors, offering investors a stable, scalable environment.

Return quality has improved significantly. Average stay length has doubled, daily visitor expenditure exceeds USD 418, and rapid expansion of four- and five-star accommodation signals a shift toward higher-yield tourism. Enhanced international connectivity and global recognition strengthen Zanzibar's premium market competitiveness. Z-Summit 2026 reflects this progress and opens pathways to future partnerships. The Commission remains committed to facilitating responsible investment balancing commercial viability with environmental stewardship and community inclusion.

I invite you to engage and shape Zanzibar's next tourism growth phase.

Karibuni Zanzibar.

Directors of KILIFAIR Promotion Co. Ltd

Welcome to Z-Summit 2026

We are delighted to welcome you to Z-SUMMIT 2026 and to experience “TANZANIA Unforgettable”! The 4th edition of Z-Summit marks a significant milestone and is poised to set a new benchmark for tourism in Zanzibar. Over the past 4 years, the Summit has evolved to become Zanzibar’s leading B2B networking platform and expo, establishing itself as the premier annual meeting place for tourism professionals.

Z-Summit serves as the No. 1 meeting hub for tourism stakeholders from both Zanzibar and the Tanzanian mainland. The event brings together travel agents and potential investors from across East Africa and beyond, creating valuable opportunities for business development and collaboration. The professionally organized event holds tremendous importance for the tourism industry and enjoys the support of His Excellency Dr. Hussein Ali Mwinyi, President of Zanzibar.

In 2025, Zanzibar welcomed 917,167 international visitors, which represents a remarkable increase of 24.5 percent compared to the 736,755 visitors in 2024. European tourists accounted for more than 611,892 arrivals, and makes it by far the biggest target group.

Since 2025, the “Ali Mohamed Shein” exhibition hall at SUZA University in Tunguu has been our event’s venue. The fully air-conditioned facility offers 2,400 square meters of exhibition space and is set to host 120 exhibitors and more than 350 registered travel agents from over 15 countries during Z-Summit 2026.

We extend our sincere gratitude to our Premium Sponsors, EXIM Bank, our Gold Partner, MB Homes, as well as our hotel and adventure partners for their ongoing support and commitment. Their support has been vital in making the Fam Trips and the Z-Summit possible.

We wish all participants a highly successful Z-Summit 2026 and a truly memorable stay in Zanzibar. Please don’t forget to mark the date for Z-Summit 2027, which is held from February 3-5, 2027.

Discover Zanzibar

Welcome to Zanzibar, a tropical paradise off Tanzania's coast where history meets natural beauty. This enchanting island blends pristine white-sand beaches with the aromatic spice plantations that earned it the nickname "Spice Island." In Stone Town, a UNESCO World Heritage site, narrow streets wind through ancient buildings, telling tales of sultans, slaves, and traders. Here, African, Arab, and Indian cultures create a unique tapestry of experiences.

Zanzibar's History

Throughout centuries, Zanzibar served as a crucial trading hub between Africa, Arabia, and India. Portuguese colonizers first controlled the island in the 16th century, followed by Omani rule that established it as the center of both spice and slave trade. In 1964, after gaining independence from Britain, Zanzibar merged with Tanganyika to form modern Tanzania.

Zanzibar's Dress Code & Culture

Dressing appropriately in Zanzibar is more than just following rules – it's a gateway to meaningful cultural experiences. The island's strong Islamic influence shapes daily life and dress codes, especially in Stone Town and villages. During Ramadhan, eating in public during the day is not permitted, to help visitors plan respectfully.

Women travelers should pack loose-fitting clothes that cover shoulders and knees. Light, flowing dresses and pants are perfect for the tropical climate. Men should avoid sleeveless shirts and very short shorts in town. Beach attire is perfectly acceptable at resorts and private beaches, but pack a light cover-up for walking through local areas.

During Ramadan, the atmosphere becomes even more traditional. Locals appreciate visitors who dress modestly and refrain from eating in public during fasting hours. This respectful approach often leads to wonderful cultural exchanges – you might find yourself invited to a traditional Swahili coffee ceremony or a family celebration, offering a genuine glimpse into Zanzibari life.

Pemba Island: History & Culture

Welcome to Pemba, a mysterious island where ancient traditions still rule daily life. Unlike its bustling neighbor Zanzibar, Pemba remains wonderfully authentic, offering glimpses into untouched Swahili culture.

Known as "The Green Island" by early Arab sailors, Pemba's story is woven with tales of seafaring traders, powerful sultans, and mystical healers. The island earned fame as the world's leading clove producer, filling the air with sweet spice fragrances that drift through its lush forests.

Today, Pemba's culture is a fascinating blend of African and Islamic traditions. In quiet fishing villages, skilled craftsmen build wooden dhows using techniques passed down through generations. The island is especially famous for its traditional healers and spiritual practices – many East Africans believe Pemba holds powerful magical secrets. Life here moves to the rhythm of the tides, where fishermen still navigate by the stars and community celebrations follow ancient customs, creating an enchanting escape from the modern world.

Thursday 12th - 14:00 hrs

Unlimited investment opportunities: Why to invest in Zanzibar NOW?
